About Karen Avery

Karen Avery was an advocate, a mentor, a peer, friend, and leader in the fight for disability rights, dedicated to giving power and independence to people with disabilities. She began her career as an advocate for fair housing, before joining IndependenceFirst in 1998 as Associate Director. She was known as an advocate extraordinaire, not only in Milwaukee, and Wisconsin, but nationally and even internationally. She was a respected leader in the mental health consumer/ survivor movement, working to advance the rights of people with mental illness and to ensure a strong consumer voice. Karen was a founding board member of the Grassroots Empowerment Project, and a leader in the Milwaukee Mental Health Task Force, where she was a longtime member of the Steering Committee. She spoke about the system and about recovery with such impact and conviction, because she lived it. She was generous in sharing the challenges of her experience with mental illness and her recovery journey.

In her work as a leader in the disability movement, as well as to friends and family, Karen set the standard for being "selfless to a fault." She gave everything – her intellect, corny sense of humor, time, attention, empathy, kindness, authenticity, love of family, wonderful laugh, zest for life with a bit of indignation. Karen never wanted to be the center of attention in the public eye, but she was willing to speak truth to power to advance the rights of her peers – and, even more impactful, to mentor and encourage others in finding their voice. Karen was also an incredibly loving and caring Mother and Grandmother, and a dear friend and mentor to so many. When Karen passed away in 2013, the disability community lost a champion. The Milwaukee, Mental Health Task Force established this award to honor Karen's legacy and her deep commitment to advancing the rights of people with disabilities, and to the mental health consumer movement.

About Marie Perry

Marie Perry was the first recipient in 2019 of the Rising Leader Award, in recognition of her outstanding leadership to advance mental health and recovery values in our community. Less than five months after receiving the award Marie died unexpectedly at the age of 31. The Rising Leader Award effective September 8, 2020 will now be the Marie C. Perry Rising Leader Award. Due to the graciousness of Marie's family the Milwaukee Mental Health Task Force now has the Marie C. Perry Endowment Fund and can provide an $800.00 scholarship to the recipient of this award into the next decade.

Marie put forth her best effort whether it was performing in the thought provoking play, Pieces In My Own Voice, working as a Care Coordinator in the Youth Comprehensive Community Services (CCS) Program at La Causa or preparing for a training of a group of adult learners who themselves wanted to become Certified Peer Specialists to advance mental health/substance use and recovery values in our community or become an outstanding leader. Marie was pursuing a graduate degree in clinical mental health counseling at Northern Vermont University, in the Children and Youth track because of her commitment to intervene early to help change the course of recovery. The Award recognizes the legacy of a young woman who was truly a visionary leader making a daily impact in our community. The Milwaukee Mental Health Task Force is grateful for her leadership and dedication to advancing recovery and in her honor establishes the Marie C. Perry Rising Leader Award.
