Nomination Narrative:

Complete the questions on one of the following pages for the award you are submitting a nomination for.

Milwaukee Mental Health Task Force Rising Leader Award:

Inspired by the dedication of our inaugural recipient, the Marie C. Perry Rising Leader Award honors Marie's memory and recognizes visionary leadership by an individual who is a rising and/or young leader in the Milwaukee area mental health community. The recipient receives an $800.00 scholarship for conference registration, fees, and logistics or continuing education to further their own professional development in the field of health and human services.

1. Explain how the nominee has demonstrated outstanding leadership to advance mental health and recovery values in our community. This may include one or more of the following: visionary leadership, providing outstanding service, effective advocacy, teaching and mentoring, and/or an ability to inspire others to excel in this work.
2. Tell us why the nominee is a positive role model for others.
3. Share one story or example that demonstrates this person's impact as a rising leader in the Milwaukee mental health community,
